All Taxfilers by Major Income Source, Yukon, 2001 to 2003

Taxfilers have been grouped by their major source of income. For instance, a taxfiler who reported gross income of $45,000 made up of employment earnings of $30,000, business earnings of $10,000, and investment earnings of $5,000, would be classified as an employee because their major source of income ($30,000) was from employment. Groupings include:

Farming: self-employed taxfilers who earned their major source of income from farming

Self-employed Sales: taxfilers whose major source of earnings is commission income from self-employment

Self-employed Professionals: self-employed taxfilers whose major source of income is professional fees (including accountants, doctors and surgeons, dentists, lawyers and notaries, engineers and architects, as well as entertainers, artists, etc.)

Investment: taxfilers whose major source of income is interest, taxable dividends from Canadian corporations, taxable capital gains, and other investment income

Unclassified: taxfilers whose major source of income is alimony, Employment Insurance, the Canada Child Tax Benefit, or other unspecified income

Business Proprietorship/Partnership: taxfilers whose major source of income is business income

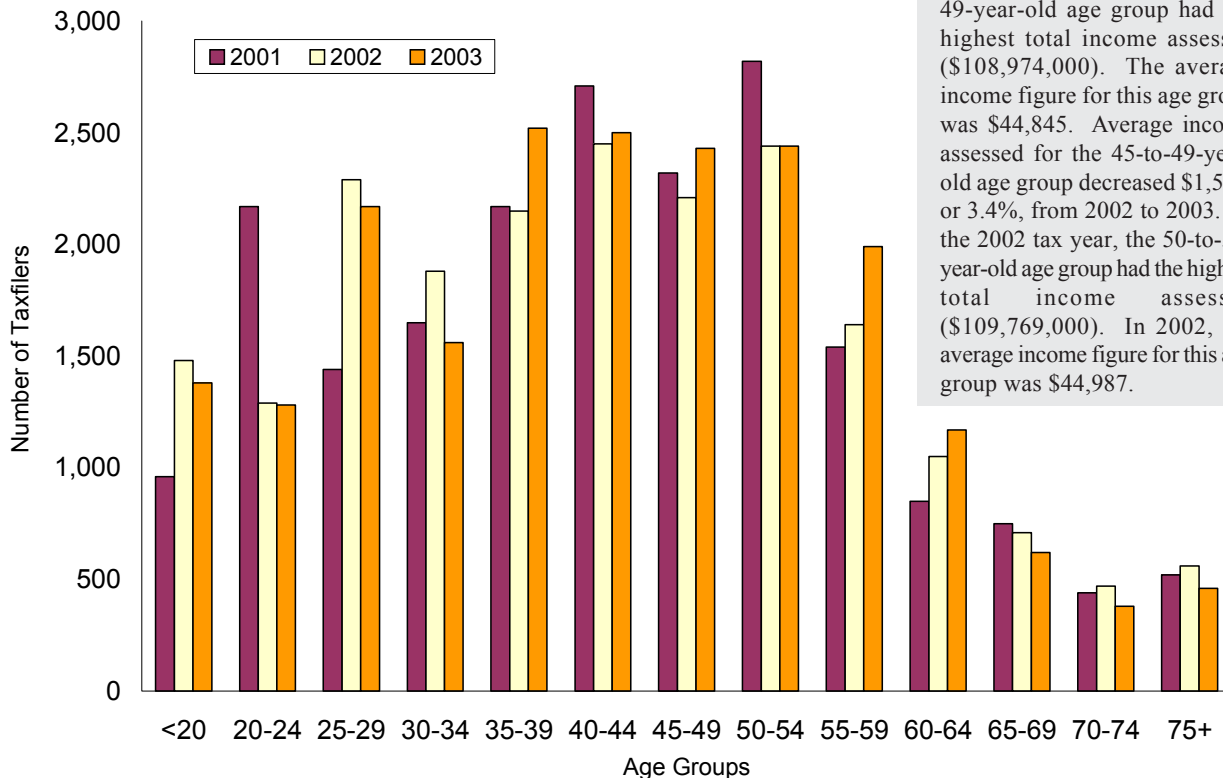

Pension: taxfilers whose major source of income is pensions

Employment: taxfilers employed by a business, institution, school, federal or provincial Crown corporation, or some form of government body
