All Taxfilers by Major Source of Income, Yukon, 2002 to 2004

Taxfilers have been grouped by their major source of income. For instance, taxfilers who reported a gross income of $45,000 made up of employment earnings of $30,000, business earnings of $10,000, and investment earnings of $5,000 would be classified as employees because their major source of income ($30,000) was from employment. Groupings include:

Farming: self-employed taxfilers who earn their major source of income from farming

Self-employed Sales: taxfilers whose major source of earnings is commission income from self-employment

Self-employed Professionals: self-employed taxfilers whose major source of income is professional fees (including accountants, doctors and surgeons, dentists, lawyers and notaries, engineers and architects, as well as entertainers, artists, etc.)

Investment: taxfilers whose major source of income is interest, taxable dividends from Canadian corporations, taxable capital gains, or other investment income

Unclassified: taxfilers whose major source of income is alimony, Employment Insurance, the Canada Child Tax Benefit, or other unspecified income

Business Proprietorship/Partnership: taxfilers whose major source of income is business income

Pension: taxfilers whose major source of income is pensions

Employment: taxfilers employed by a business, institution, school, federal or provincial Crown corporation, or some form of government body

Average Taxable Income Assessed, Canada, Provinces, and Territories, 2004

*Note: Total deductions includes deductions from total income assessed, such as RRSP contributions, annual union dues, child care expenses, etc., and deductions from net income, such as capital gains deductions, social assistance payments, Workers Compensation benefits, Northern Residents Allowance, etc. Total deductions are calculated as follows: Sum of "total deduction before adjustments," "social benefits repayment," and "total deductions from net income."

Taxfilers include all returns filed with and without income reported. Some returns are filed for the sole purpose of the GST Credit and/or Child Tax Credit. All figures are reported in current-year dollars and have not been adjusted for inflation. The information contained in this publication is based on Canada Customs and Revenue Agency data. Statistics pertaining to less than ten taxfilers have been suppressed; however, they are included in all subtotals and totals. All counts of the number of taxfilers have been rounded to the nearest ten. Subtotals and totals were rounded independently. Thus, due to rounding and suppression, numbers may not sum to totals.
