About the Survey

The Survey of Employment, Payrolls and Hours (SEPH) provides a monthly portrait of the earnings, payroll jobs (i.e., occupied positions) and hours worked by detailed industry. A combination of payroll deduction accounts (provided to Statistics Canada by the Canada Revenue Agency) and the Business Payrolls Survey (BPS) is used to produce these estimates.

With this release of January 2018 data, the Survey of Employment, Payrolls and Hours (SEPH) began using the 2017 North American Industry Classification System (NAICS) 2.0 instead of NAICS 2012. Data were revised historically back to 2001. Historical revisions were also made to a small number of industries, primarily in 2016 and 2017, and were concentrated in Federal public administration industry (NAICS 911), Transportation and warehousing (NAICS 48-49) and Information and cultural industries (NAICS 51). These changes have little impact on the national, provincial and territorial industrial aggregate estimates.

- In 2017, the number of Yukon employees (including those in unclassified businesses) increased by 680, or 3.2%, compared to 2016, while average weekly earnings (excluding earnings by employees in unclassified businesses and including overtime) increased by $39.97, or 3.8%.
- Comparing 2017 to 2008, the number of employees in Yukon increased by 3,313, or 18.0%, while average weekly earnings increased by $219.52, or 25.1%.

Employment by Month, Yukon, 2013 to 2017

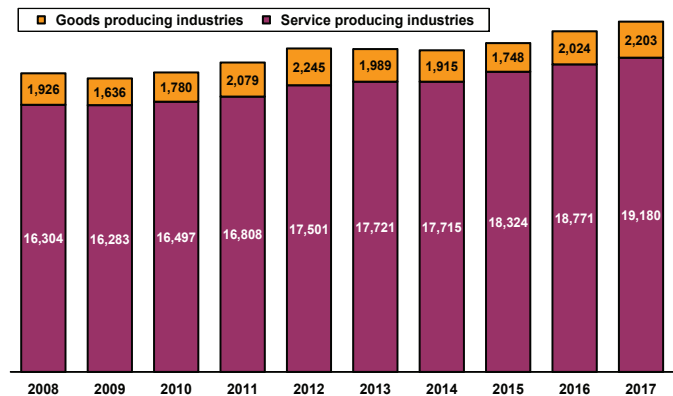

Employment in Yukon varies with the season. It increases through the summer months and decreases in the winter. This is most apparent in the Services-producing industries, in which the largest proportion of Yukoners are employed. The number of employees typically remains high in the months of June, July, August and September and low in January.

Goods-Producing vs. Services-Producing Industries Employment, Yukon, 2008 to 2017

Comparing 2017 to 2016, the number of Services-producing industries' workers increased by 409, or 2.2%, while the number of Goods-producing industries' workers increased by 179, or 8.8%.

Over the last decade (2008-2017), the relative ratio of employment in Goods-producing industries to that in Services-producing industries varied from a high of 11.4:88.6 in 2012 to a low of 8.7:91.3 in 2015. As mining activity increased in Yukon from 2009 through 2012, the ratio shifted slightly in favour of the Goods-producing industries. The ratio shifted back in favour of the Services-producing industries as the Goods-producing industries' employment started decreasing in 2013 with declining mining activities until 2016 when the ratio bounced back to the 2014 level. In 2017, the ratio was slightly above the 2015 level for Goods-producing industries.
